Corps of Engineers announces Lewisville Lake trail system partners

Fort Worth, TX - The Challenge-Cost Share Partners of the Elm Fork Trail System at Lewisville Lake are pleased to announce completion of the initial delineation of the trail expansion between Old Alton Bridge and Sycamore Bend Park, thanks to the efforts of many volunteers on National Public Lands Day, Sept. 28. However, in order to fully complete the trail for public use, the partners will be holding several more workdays throughout the coming months and more volunteers are needed. The next volunteer workday is scheduled for January 18, 2003. Anyone who would like to volunteer may contact one of the Challenge-Cost Share partners listed below to register:

Town of Hickory Creek, Judy Rentfro, 940-321-0707

City of Corinth, Paul Leslie, 940-498-1386

Town of Copper Canyon, Karen Mangum, 940-241-2098

U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Tim MacAllister, 972-434-1666
